

Tips on How Parents Can Motivate Their Children to Do Homework

- Provide a well-lit work area, equipped with needed supplies
- Control and limit meaningful distractions
- Help your child develop a daily and weekly schedule of homework and other activities
- Find out how much and how often homework is expected
- Do not help your child do homework
- Be supportive and encouraging, avoid criticism and punishment
- Praise effort and independence
- Monitor your child's daily homework
- Check your child's completed homework for neatness and accuracy and give feedback
- Communicate with the teacher
- Use Goal-Setting
- Model learning

Center for Effective
Parenting
614 East Emma, Suite 113
Springdale, AR 72764
479-751-6166

