

Parent Teacher Conferences

Activity: Learning from Stories

Write a story about a time when you had a very positive communication with a student's parent or family member.

- Why do you think it worked so well?
- What was your goal?
- Who was the audience?
- What approach did you use?

Source: This activity idea was taken from Training Guides for the Head Start Learning Community: Communicating with Parents